Sprecher 1

So, what's your name?

Sprecher 2

Gabe.

Sprecher 1

And where are you from?

Sprecher 2

England.

Sprecher 1

And how long did it take you to get here?

Sprecher 2

Two days, two days.

Sprecher 1

You drove all with the camper?

Sprecher 2

Yeah, drove down in that and got a ferry. Oh, okay.

Sprecher 1

And you're the first time here or? It's.

Sprecher 2

My third time here. It's his first time. Oh, okay.

Sprecher 1

And you were here the whole week or?

Sprecher 2

Well, we got here last Saturday. Oh, okay.

Sprecher 1

Why are you at Le Mans and not some other race?

Sprecher 2

Good race. It's the history of it. It's something about this place. You don't get anywhere else.

Sprecher 3

Like it?

Sprecher 1

And well, what team do you support?

Sprecher 2

Bosch.

Sprecher 1

Yeah, it's not. Maybe.

Sprecher 2

You never know. You never know. That's five hours left.

Sprecher 1

Yeah. And does it have a special meaning to you to be here or?

Sprecher 2

It's just. It's just, I don't know, it's something about this place and you look forward to coming every year. And it normally delivers. Yeah. Well, my dad's been coming for 20, 27 years now. But no, it's quite a special place.

Sprecher 1

What's the most special thing you saw here or like a moment that you remember?

Sprecher 2

I remember watching Matoya and DNF and start putting it straight on the TV. That's probably...

Sprecher 1

And probably will come next year.

Sprecher 2

Probably. Oh, it's a Ferrari.

Sprecher 1

Oh, hell no.

Sprecher 2

That's a Ferrari scrap. Ferrari scrap. One of the fiber cars crashed. It's a 51. Oh, hell no. That's a leader.

Sprecher 1

What do you what do you find fascinating about the motorsport?

Sprecher 2

It's the technology, it's the technology, it's such a brilliant, they all they all sound different, they all look different. It's unpredictability.

Sprecher 1

And what do you do when you're not here? So like school or...

Sprecher 2

We're at university.

Sprecher 1

Oh, okay. And which major?

Sprecher 2

History.

Sprecher 1

What do you want to do after uni?

Sprecher 2

No, I have no idea. We'll see. Got a password?

Sprecher 1

Would you drive here if you can?

Sprecher 2

I think he wants to next year. Bit boring when you sign the back.

Sprecher 1

Do you have like something to add or to say for the end?

Sprecher 2

Let's do one of these last four hours.

Sprecher 1

Maybe like a quote or something?

Sprecher 2

Stella, you got a quote. Come on. Steve McQueen, when you're racing, it's live and everything is before us.

Sprecher 1

Okay. Thank you.

Sprecher 2

No worries. Have a great race. Enjoy. Bye.

Sprecher 1

My final thesis at school is about Le Mans.

Sprecher 2

Where are you from?

Sprecher 1

Switzerland.

Sprecher 2

Where in Switzerland?

Sprecher 1

Zurich. Where are you from?

Sprecher 2

We're from Bristol in the United Kingdom. Oh, okay. Yeah, my name is Tom.

Sprecher 1

David, hello. How long did you have to get here?

Sprecher 2

How long did it take to get here? We came by a normal thing, three days, but we came away.

Sprecher 1

All with the camper.

Sprecher 2

Yeah, the 95th.

Sprecher 1

Okay. And is it your first time here or...?

Sprecher 2

No, third time. I came in '96. Oh, okay.

Sprecher 1

And why did you get here the last three years? Do you like it so much or?

Sprecher 2

I just like the weekend. I've been racing, interested, but I don't think you can't. His friends come home.

Sprecher 1

So you're only here for the weekend, not the whole week?

Sprecher 2

We arrived on Friday, April.

Sprecher 1

And you're here with who? Like his friend.

Sprecher 2

Do you like breakfast?

Sprecher 1

No, it's okay. But it looks nice. So what do you do like for a job or a hobby?

Sprecher 2

Well, for hobby, I cycle and paddle board, really. I've got two drone on set now, so just family and family.

Sprecher 1

How do you like it? How do you like it now? So, is it great?

Sprecher 2

I mean... It's a beautiful morning, isn't it? I like this time of the race.

Sprecher 1

And you'll get here next year.

Sprecher 2

I'm not sure. We'll see you.

Sprecher 1

What was the most special moment or special thing you saw here?

Sprecher 2

We went to the corner last night. Right on football, it was really close to the ground. Midnight, it was really good to be close to the ground. Yeah, a great corner.

Sprecher 1

And what team do you support?

Sprecher 2

Chelsea. Chelsea. Do you mean football?

Sprecher 1

No.

Sprecher 2

I quite like Alpine. I like the calm. Yeah, I also like the nice part in the mountain. I think it looks fantastic.

Sprecher 1

Sounds great. Do you have like a quote for the end of the interview? Like something to live by or something.

Sprecher 2

Yeah, well, if you've never been to Lebanon before, come and experience it. It's a great weekend.

Sprecher 1

So what's your name and why are you here?

Sprecher 2

My name is Erik de Polliem. I'm from the Netherlands. I'm here to watch it 24 hours. I don't have to be here with my son. So this is the 10th time I go there.

Sprecher 1

And why do you come here so often? What do you find so fascinating about the race?

Sprecher 2

I like the long distance racing, especially the fact that there's so many strategies played out on the circuit. That's one. Two is three different classes of car races in one. It's very attractive.

Sprecher 1

And... How long have you been here? So when did you arrive?

Sprecher 2

I arrived on Wednesday last week and I leave tonight.

Sprecher 1

And you came here all with the camper from the Netherlands.

Sprecher 2

Yes, yes. Correct.

Sprecher 1

And how long did it take you?

Sprecher 2

About 7 to 8 hours.

Sprecher 1

And how is it?

Sprecher 2

It's great. It's the first time here in Mulsanne.

Sprecher 3

We love it.

Sprecher 2

It's very crowded.

Sprecher 1

Can you sleep with all the noise in the night or?

Sprecher 2

I need my sleep, so I'll sleep.

Sprecher 1

And what do you do beside come here and look at the race?

Sprecher 2

I can work for my money. I'm a business manager, so...

Sprecher 1

And what was your best moment here?

Sprecher 2

I hope it's gonna come. It still has to come. That forces us to commit to the race.

Sprecher 1

Fingers crossed. Does it look good right now?

Sprecher 3

No, I know.

Sprecher 1

And I mean, would you... drive a racing car if you could here.

Sprecher 2

If I could practice my skills at that point.

Sprecher 1

And why is Porsche your favorite team?

Sprecher 2

I have a Porsche, I drive a Porsche myself for a long, long time. I find it an intriguing brand, especially on sports. Just, you know, you have to make a choice, I want them. I love the way they do this and it's not good and most of their remarks and their great accomplishments in sports.

Sprecher 1

Would you think you would go to another race instead of Le Mans or is it safe that you're gonna come to Le Mans next year?

Sprecher 2

Oh yeah, yeah, we're gonna come definitely next year. But when time allows, I typically go to six hours, which is close to about an hour and a half.

Sprecher 4

No, that's.

Sprecher 1

It. Do you want to say like a quote to finish the interview or something that maybe you have to say?

Sprecher 2

Le Mans, keep it up. It's perfect sports. I like the subject and I think that doing Thank you very much.

Sprecher 1

Have a great race.
